

Tri-State Generation and Transmission Association, Inc.
Open Access Transmission Tariff – GIP and GIA
Summary of substantive changes effective July 11, 2017

GIP

Definition of Loss, “indemnifying Party” referenced in the last sentence revised to the defined term “Indemnified Person”.

GIA

Definition of Interconnection Facilities, removed “Stand Alone Network Upgrades” from last sentence.

Definition of Loss, Indemnified “Party” referenced in the last sentence revised to the defined term Indemnified “Person”.

Section 2.4.1: Third paragraph removed the “an” and “that”, If ~~an~~ Interconnection Customer terminates this GIA, it shall be responsible for all cost incurred in association with ~~that~~ Interconnection Customers interconnection...

Section 5.8.1: Revised to include new language “Unless otherwise stated in Appendix B”

Section 5.11: Revised to include new language “Unless as otherwise provided in Appendix A”

Section 5.15.4: Revised term by capitalizing “parties” to “Parties”

Section 5.16: Removed the term “any”. Nothing in this GIA is intended to adversely affect ~~any~~ Transmission Providers...

Section 9.7.5: Added term “if applicable” prior to “generator loss-of-field.”

Section 19.1: Removed reference to RUS.

Section 24.2: Revised to include new language “Unless otherwise stated in Appendix B”

Appendix C to GIA:

Generating Facility: added “The Generating Facility must be able to meet all reactive power requirements and dynamic response low voltage ride through (LVRT) requirements as stated in the Interconnection System Impact Study Final Report dated _____.”

Point of Change of Ownership: revised to say, “The point of change of ownership shall be as shown in Appendix B of the Facilities Study dated _____ and included in this GIA as _____.”

Point of Interconnection: revised to say, “The Point of Interconnection will be as shown in Appendix B of the Facilities Study dated _____ and included in this GIA as _____.”

(e) Maintenance Testing: revised “generator” to the defined term “Generating Facility”.

Appendix E: Revised TS to read TSOA